

Interstate Council on Water Policy 59th Annual Meeting

October 9–11, 2018 | Oklahoma City Sheraton Downtown

On behalf of the board of directors, I am pleased to invite you to Oklahoma City for our 59th Annual Meeting, October 9-11, 2018. Join fellow water resources managers, federal partners, and consultants in interactive discussions on planning, data, and national policy and in networking events; weigh in on decisions regarding ICWP’s future direction, policy positions, and technical training opportunities during our annual members business meeting; and discover Oklahoma’s complex water issues on a tour of the state’s most controversial and protected streams emanating from the ancient Arbuckle Mountains.

The Sheraton OKC Downtown Hotel, adjacent to the Bricktown entertainment district, will be our home base during the event. As Oklahoma City’s first warehouse district founded just days after the Land Run of 1889, today the area hosts lively restaurants and breweries, Olympic rowing and white water rafting, indoor rock climbing and trails along the Oklahoma River, the OKC National Memorial museum, and more (www.visitokc.com). The hotel is offering an extended special room rate from October 8th through 12th so you have an option to stay and explore before or following the meeting!
